

11th November 2013

Statement From International Federation of Environmental Health

All Members of the International Federation of Environmental Health express their deep concern for the People of the Philippines during this extreme natural disaster event and trust the adversity local communities face will be mitigated by the quick intervention of Governments and Relief Agencies.

Our Members in the Asia and the Pacific Region can offer environmental health advice and are encouraged to engage in the disaster management response.

Peter Davey
President